CHURCH OF CHRIST

Col. 3:16 "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, SINGING with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

The Abilene Christian College A Capella Chorus will be in Hamlin Sunday. Come out and hear them at the Church of Christ at 8 P. M.

The A Capella Chorus is a group of mixed voices under the capable direction of Mr. Burford. They have often given important programs over Radio Station KFJZ of Fort Worth and others. They also entertain civic clubs and present many concerts both religious and secular throughout the year.

Don't fail to hear them Sunday night.

Minister, Luther G. Savage

Better Be Good To The Electrical Appliances

Factories that once hummed busy as a bee turning out electric appliances today are roaring like a lion following conversion to the manufacture of war materials. Hence, the West Texas Utilities foresees a time when rationing will be applied to all appliances, in addition to refrigerators—a day when floor sweepers, irons and similar items will become as hard to get as a new tire or a hundred lbs. of sugar.

So the company is advertising that you "Be good to your electric appliances and they'll be good to you."

Refrigerators, it was pointed out, are vital to the conservation and protection of food and, therefore, steps should be taken to keep them in good repair and to prevent unnecessary deterioration. Most all appliances, it was said, are important in maintaining civilian morale, performing many household tasks and allowing more time for war efforts.

Special care was urged for all appliance parts and cords for lamps in which rubber or copper is used.

"It is the obligation of the government to act without fear or favor. On the labor issue government has acted with both fear and favor. Within the space of a single week we saw the government caught on both horns of its dilemma, first fearing to exercise its powers under the laws and then being all but impotent in the coal strike because it had abdicated power by law."—H. M. Wriston, President, Brown University.

Home-Making Girls

Served Rotary Lunch

One of the most enjoyable luncheons yet given the Hamlin Rotary Club was served by the Home-Making Class in the dining room of the Home-Making department of the High school, Wednesday, under the direction of Miss Barron, their instructor. This was the first public demonstration of Miss Barron's work since she began her services in Hamlin only a few weeks ago. The Club and all the visiting Rotarians were liberal in compliments of the luncheon and the program that followed in the auditorium.

Guests of the Club were three men from Abilene, Dr. Don Morris, president of Abilene Christian College, John Deffebach, D. W. Berry and John Pinson, of Sweetwater. Also the Hamlin School Board, Tom Teague, J. Ubben, W. H. McBride, Joe W. McCrary, Holly Toler, Roy Gilbreath and C. C. Prater, and Supt. Gordon Bennett and Principal Hubert Morton, were guests.

A short, but very enlightening program was rendered in the auditorium.

If we fail the church in these trying times, then the future, indeed, is dark and our children's plight is a very sad one. We need the influence of the church more than ever before. Help make this influence a vital force in this community by faithful attendance at the house of the Lord.

Mrs. P. D. Harkins spent last week in Wichita Falls, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McDonald. She says the highway traffic has not slowed down much yet, as all she could do to hold her "Plymouth Steed" down to 40 or 50 miles, especially while going to see "mama and papa." This couple came to Hamlin last October. Mr. Harkins is employed by the Shell Pipe Line Co.

Memorial Service For A "MacArthur Boy"

Hamlin has had its first "Memorial Service" for a fallen "hero" and as fate would have it, it was for a "MacArthur Boy."

The Herald is sure this was the first memorial service for a Hamlin boy in our armed services . . . several died in camps during the first World War, but as far as we have any record, the service here Sunday was the first of its kind for one who had died in battle.

Services were held at the First Baptist church, at 3:00 P. M. with the pastor, Rev. East assisting the Rev. N. A. McMillan, pastor of the Church of the Assembly of God, the church which the family attends.

It was a simple service, but deeply impressive, for

HAROLD A. GARRISON

Who was born November 18, 1917 and who died in action January 31, 1942, in defense of his country, with the MacArthur army in the Philippines. He was 24 years, 2 months and 12 days of age.

Harold A. Garrison joined the Regular Army in May, 1939; sailed for Manila July 1, 1939. At the time of his death he was a member of Headquarters Company, 31st Infantry.

The last letter his mother received from him was Dec. 3, 1941, saying he would leave on the first ship out for home and that he was feeling fine.

This deceased soldier is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. W. Essary, a step-father, J. W. Essary, one brother, Sgt. William G. Garrison of the Air Corps in Hawaii; also there are four half-sisters, three half-brothers, five step sisters and four step-brothers, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Messick.

The last letter from this soldier boy would indicate that he longed to return from the far-away islands to his mother and family and friends at Hamlin. He had volunteered to make the Army his profession, and his death came just when all the nation was so proud of the heroic stand the "MacArthur Boys" were making against such overwhelming odds.

The services Sunday cast a shadow of sadness over everyone present, and there should have been more present. It would have been a heart of steel not to feel a touch of sympathy for the relatives.

Yes, it was a funeral, but there was no casket. The floral offerings were few, simple, but great in effect. A beautiful flower-designed national flag about 20 by 24 inches was the center view, with other floral offerings on either side. There were no formalities, no special eulogies—severe simplicity throughout was evident. The minister, Rev. McMillan, was introduced by Rev. East to make the talk. He picked up something from the top of the stand, looked at it calmly, sadly. He said, "May we place this out somewhere so it can be seen?" It was a tinted picture of Harold A. Garrison, size about 7x10 inches. It became the center of emotions, and viewed from any point in the auditorium, the fine features of a brave soldier stood out for every one to see. Dressed in a tropical army uniform of pure white, a clean handsome face, proud brave look, all together stimulated every fibre of sympathy and patriotism in every heart. Instead of the fair-sized audience, there should have been present thousands to pay honor and to view the likeness of a young man who in time of peril to his nation had paid the supreme sacrifice. Perhaps the services were held too quickly and not enough information was given before the hour set, or more would have been present.

Not many Hamlin people knew this young man intimately, but those who did, speak of him in the highest terms. As one might properly surmise, he had never enjoyed many advantages while growing up. But in this land, one need not be educated or rich to merit the highest esteem of his countrymen. The very intelligent look and general appearance of Harold A. Garrison showed that he was a typical American, possessing all that goes to make up our young aggressive manhood of America. Truly Harold A. Garrison was a hero, serving with a hero and dying as a hero. Long live the memory of every "MacAr-

Community War Work Is Going On Quietly

A peep in on the Red Cross room Tuesday afternoon revealed the fact that many Hamlin women are diligently working to provide comfort to somebody who is to suffer because of war.

The woman who leaves her home, her own work, plies her fingers with needles and thread, or stacks papers, knits garments and keeps eternally at something, we say she is a strength in time of trouble. Yes, Ye Editor looked in on the Red Cross room.

You know it is remarkable how many papers are carried to the Red Cross room. Most of them carefully and properly tied in classified bundles. But one may see some "trashy stuff" that has been dumped. That simply means that some good woman must assort the papers from the stuff that somebody dumped along with filth that should have never been delivered there. That is not help. It means work for somebody. Remember papers should be classified and stacked and tied, all as clean as possible.

It would be interesting for the Herald to list the names of all of the women who give of their time and labor in this war work. And we will venture to name some of the several we saw Tuesday: There was Mrs. M. Y. Wilson, Mrs. Paul Bryan, Mrs. W. H. Dean, Mrs. J. S. Dickey, Mrs. Grigg, Mrs. Bernard Meeks, Mrs. O. G. Harvey, Mrs. R. A. Crockett, Mrs. Howard King and others.

Somebody who has not seen them working, might ask, "What are they doing?" Well, sir, they are piecing quilts, sewing quilts and quilting quilts, for one thing. Some knit garments, some packing and on and on they work. It all sums up that some unfortunate person, somewhere in the world will be helped by the loving hands of Hamlin community women.

Jack Miller of Camp Bowie was here this week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Miller.

thir Boy."

The Rev. McMillan, in the trying hour, did deliver a very impressive and appropriate message, not so much for the dead, but for the living of all rank and stations of life.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Several years ago statistics showed that the American dollar was spent thus: 24 1-2c for living expenses; 22c for luxuries; 14c for waste; 11c for investments; 8 1-4c for crime; 4 1-2c for government; 1 1-2c for education; 3-4c for religion; the rest for miscellaneous.

These figures have changed. Today we are spending a large portion of our national income to keep a bunch of international gangsters from destroying our civilization. We wonder what the present might be if: we had spent less for gasoline and more for the gospel; less for the movies and more for the salvation of the world; less for gymnastics and more for godliness; less for fun and fudge and filth and more for those things which do not perish. We can only speculate as to the answer.

What if we as a people should come back to God and honor Him with our substance, our time, and our talents? The Bible gives the answer. "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." Prov. 14:34. "If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and heal their land." II Chron. 7:14.

We welcome you to our services Sunday. We are beginning the evening service thirty minutes later, new time: Training Unions, 7:30; Evening Worship, 8:30; Morning services as usual: Sunday School at 9:45; Morning Worship, 11:00.

H. E. East, Pastor

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greenway went to Childress Monday to attend the funeral of T. M. McClaran, an uncle of Mrs. Greenway.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

This

Geography—

For about three years now, we have been studying geography, down to the minutest detail. This week we have started on the last lap around the world. We have just finished the islands of the Pacific Ocean, and now we are rounding the straights into the Indian Ocean to learn as much as possible about the lay of the coast lines, the bases, the people and their interior lands.

Java (like Holland, like Belgium, Denmark, Poland, Norway, Greece, Romania, and France, lies conquered, and silent. Like a fallen beast, just silent, perishing under the heel of the Japs. So to keep ahead, we've got to study some more geography.

This week is another week of uncertainty. Just which way and how many armies will the Japs throw out to conquer some more corners of the world? Will Japan strike, some cold night, at the back of Russia; will Japan head into the untrained, helpless Indian millions; will Japan pour her armies into Australia and New Zealand to rob the white English-speaking peoples of the most beautiful new lands of the earth; will Japan and Germany crush Russia between two mighty armies of steel, and then possess enough resources to invade this loved America? These are just a few questions uppermost in our minds this week.

Did you know the United States has only a miserably small army, to cover all the danger points and do the job that Americans must have done to continue our independent way of life? The next phase of this struggle must be "forward" and no stopping or turning aside. The world is too small now to accommodate the Americans and the bastardly Japs. There is not much more geography to study, and from here on the geography will be a review of the lands now silent. Watch the American forces push the Huns back and duck the Japs a jolt that will last them a spell.

"Carping Critics"—

The heading above is from an address of Congressman Celler of New York, as published in the Congressional Record, Feb. 28.

It was in reply to so much criticism of congress, lately. In the address he says: "I am for utmost criticism provided it be constructive and patriotic" . . . In this address the gentleman from New York sets forth some pretty good reading, as to who criticize the most and severest, and why, and then he sets out the gigantic task and accomplishments congress has thus far accomplished. There are at least two kinds of people in the United States, first those who have been wide-awake all along and wanted to do something, and, second, the isolationists who saw nothing but error, misdeeds and blunders of the administration before December 7.

The greatest criticism in Texas comes against congress for not dealing strongly with the labor situation. It all depends upon the interest a section of a country has. Down here in Texas we think there is a great fire raging in the world and we ALL should fight to the limit of our strength, not counting hours, or dollars in our efforts to stop the war in the world. We can't see how or why any authority should allow even one man to loaf on a construction job, much less thousands.

Let us all boost the good deeds accomplished and offer constructive suggestions, based upon patriotism and it will make everybody feel better. Good old horse sense goes farther than anything else in this nation. We can't afford to "blow up the works" just because one or two mistakes (according to our knowledge) have been made or because a defeat has come in some corner of the world.

War Means Movement

"War, from the beginning of time, has meant movement—transportation," said Robert S. Henry of the Association of American Railroads, in a recent address. "For ten thousand years, this movement was accomplished by the muscles of men and animals. It was a severely limited movement. William Tecumseh Sherman defined the limit when he said that no army depending upon supplies hauled by wagon could operate more than one hundred miles from its base, because the teams and men, going and coming, would 'consume the contents of the wagons.'"

"And then a little more than three-quarters of a century ago there came into war a new sort of transportation—mechanized transportation by rail. It found its first real use in the American War between the States.

"This was the first mechanized war, the first railroad war. Its pattern was shaped largely by the pattern of the railroads. From that day to this, the instruments of mechanized mobility have vastly multiplied. This present war, above all conflicts of the past, is a war of swift movement and sudden surprise. But in the present preoccupation with these new adjuncts of mobile war, we cannot forget that back of them, making them possible and at the same time making possible the whole war effort of the nation, and its daily life as well, is the greatest mechanized transportation of all—the immense mass carrying machine of the American railroads."

Producing industry is the backbone of the war effort. And rail transportation is the backbone of producing industry.

Next time you see a train, think of it in this light. It is a great weapon of war. And without it, the waging of successful war would be impossible.—Industrial News.

Farmers Told to Plant Full Cotton Quotas

Long Staple Lint and Oil From Seed Needed In War Effort

Washington—The nation's two million five hundred thousand cotton farmers were told by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard that they should plant this year their full national acreage allotment of 27,400,000 acres. He recommended that as much of this acreage allotment as possible be planted in medium or longer staple varieties of cotton in order to assure adequate supplies of the qualities needed to meet military requirements.

The Secretary explained that his call on the cotton farmers to plant their full allotment does not mean that the cotton acreage for 1942 will be increased, or that farmers are expected to exceed their assigned quotas. Farmers last year underplanted the national acreage allotment by 4,000,000 acres and the Secretary is anxious that there be no such underplanting this season. The 1941 crop of 10,976,000 bales was produced from a planted acreage of 23,250,000 acres.

A substantial increase in the production of cottonseed oil would result from the planting of the full cotton acreage allotment, Wickard pointed out, adding that vegetable oils are badly needed. Assuming that the entire increase in production of cotton seed is crushed for oil, a 1942 crop of 13,500 bales would result in an increase of 250,000,000 pounds of cottonseed oil over the 1941 production.

"It is especially important," Wickard said, "that farmers plant their full cotton acreage allotments in those areas which normally produce cotton of a staple length of one inch or better, and where the planting of a full allotment will not reduce the acreage planted to other oil crops. The war emergency has developed an increased need for cotton of longer staple lengths. In addition to helping meet the need for longer staple cotton, increased cotton production also will add considerably to our supply of vegetable oils."

A Letter

Council Bluffs, Iowa
March 3, 1942Hamlin Herald
Hamlin, Texas
Dear Mr. Pope:

Letters from home are greatly enjoyed, but still I look forward to an even greater joy on Monday's knowing it is "Hamlin Herald Day," up North. However, they speak of this area being the gate way to the "Great West," I still feel that it is the North.

In order to continue to share the news of the people whom I enjoyed during the years I spent in Hamlin, I am enclosing the price of another year's subscription.

I am grateful to you and your staff for the past service, and for always remembering me on your mailing list.

The weather here has been changeable this winter. Now the city has a pretty blanket of snow; makes a beautiful picture, for one who is not used to snow.

Wishing the Herald every success there is during our "Victory Time." Remember me to my many friends in Hamlin, and in the communities around Hamlin.

Gratefully,

Myrtle Lee Cohorn

P. S. I am still at the Mercy Hospital, as surgical supervisor. Like my work. The Sisters are lovely to work with and to be one's superior.

Too Many Put Faith In Fiction

(Found In Congressional Record)

FAIRY TALE

No harm can come to France. The Maginot Line is impregnable. The French Army is the finest on earth. Besides, Hitler doesn't have enough gasoline to fight a war. Italy is going to collapse. The German people will revolt. General Mud will save Poland. General Rommel is washed up. France help the Nazis? Ridiculous! Japan's greatest fear is war with America. The Japs have only a few miserable planes. Besides, they are cross-eyed and can't fly them. Pearl Harbor is impregnable. Singapore is impregnable. Enemy planes will never reach the Pacific Coast; nor will Jap submarines. The Japanese people are weary of the war. Japan is certain to collapse internally.

Americans don't want to fight—Americans can't fight.

TRUE STORY

War is hell—more so than ever and terrifically more costly. Wars are won—or lost—by whole peoples, not just by soldiers. A soldier is worthless if he cannot feel every moment of his dangerous life that the folks at home are doing their utmost to back him up. Blood and tears and sweat and toil don't mean a thing if they do not come from everybody. Being confident of ultimate victory is all right enough if you're helping to win that victory. This war will not be a breeze. It will be long and tough and tiresome. Our enemies are not dolts and cowards. They are cunning—and courageous in a nasty sort of way. They can be licked. They will be licked. Americans can fight. Americans will fight—every one of us—everywhere, in every way.

Flat Top Organizes New Defense Unit

On Thursday night, Feb. 19 the Defense Committee of Hamlin came to Flat Top community to put on a Defense program that they were sponsoring. They also helped to organize a local unit here at Flat Top.

Several phases of the Defense work were discussed, including Food for Defense by Mr. Campbell; Scrap Iron for Defense by Mr. Witt; Repair of Farm Machinery by Mr. Carmichael, and Defense Stamps and Bonds by the Hamlin Postmaster, Harold Bonner, and Tate May, a banker.

At the conclusion of the program given by the Hamlin group, the Flat Top Defense unit was organized with the following officers: Roy Bruner, president; Clinton Packwood, vice-president; Eugene McInroe, secretary, and Mrs. Eugene McInroe, reporter.

On Thursday night, March 5th, the president had a called meeting for the purpose of completing the local organization. The following persons were elected by the president as workers on the various committees:

Food for Defense, Mrs. Eli Bruner, chairman; Mrs. Elsie Packwood and Mrs. Larry Holmes.

Scrap Iron, D. W. Richardson, chairman; Clinton Packwood and E. C. Davis.

Repair of Farm Machinery, Larry Holmes, chairman; James McGough and Webster Graham.

Defense Bonds and Stamps, Mrs. J. T. Hamrick, chairman; Mrs. D. W. Richardson and Mrs. J. M. McGough.

After the business session of the meeting, Mrs. A. L. Allison from Anson gave a very interesting and educational talk on the subject of Nutrition. This talk was followed by a discussion of the stock available for purchase in the Cheese Plant at Anson. This discussion was lead by Mrs. Williams of Tuxedo.

At the conclusion of all work pertaining to defense, the local Boy Scout troop promoted a Court of Honor for the Scouts that were ready for advancement. The following awards were conferred upon the Scouts by the Scoutmaster, Eugene McInroe and the assistant Scoutmaster, Clinton Packwood: First class rank, Scouts E. L. Lee, Glenn Richardson and L. V. Hill; Merits, E. L. Lee and Glenn Richardson; and Star Scout rank was conferred upon Glenn Richardson. The Scout program was concluded by the Scoutmaster's benediction.

Much scrap iron is being hauled into town. The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts have gathered four or five tons and they are still working to gather scraps to whip the Japs. If you have old papers or scrap iron, let the Scouts at Flat Top know and they will be glad to take them off your hands. The Girl Scouts are also piecing quilts for the Red Cross and they are meeting at Flat Top church Saturday night, March 14th to quilt two quilts. They invite any one who can quilt to come Saturday night and help them.

The teachers and pupils in Flat Top are making a special effort to have their school one hundred per cent for defense. Most every morning some child meets the postman and buys defense stamps. Since the defense program started in our community, the teachers and pupils have spent several dollars for Defense.

Immediately after the Pearl Harbor incident, the school board at this place bought a two thousand dollar bond for which everyone is very proud. We are happy that we can do a little to help our men and boys who are fighting for American democracy and world freedom.

'Menu' Buttons

Buttons are more decorative than ever in the spring fashion picture. Treated, for the most part, as trimming or accessory accents, they are made to achieve striking effects. Use them on a jacket or a dress and watch the reaction of admiring friends. Among the stunning buttons designed this season, two of the most thrilling types are the ceramic roses used to trim the afternoon dress, shown at the top in the above picture, and "menu" buttons like the huge "turkey on a plate" buttons that dramatize the tailored jacket illustrated below. Remember, many a last year's dress or suit can be made to look new with this year's buttons. A thrifty way of achieving the height of fashion!

Cecil Eivens, former Hamlin resident who has been assistant manager of the Wichita Falls Production Credit Association since January, 1941, has moved to Lubbock and assumed a position on March 1 as assistant secretary-treasurer of the Lubbock Production Credit Association. Mr. Eivens was employed in the Farmers and Merchants National Bank before moving to Lubbock in 1940. His mother, Mrs. A. M. Eivens, still resides near McCaulley.

Mrs. Effie McCoy writes from Los Angeles that she had just received word from her sailor son Dawson who had come into Honolulu safe and happy and wanted her to pass the word on to his friends in Hamlin and his brothers here, J. E., Etzel and Larry. Any mother getting direct word now from a son of the armed service has a right to be supremely happy.

Pvt. Buford C. Howard of Ft. Leonard, Mo., is at home on a short furlough and to be with his daughter, Nancy Pearl, born on March 8th. The mother was Edna Pearl Bull before her marriage. The soldier's parents live at Sylvester.

The Herald has a birth announcement from Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Stoner of 955 Woodside, Pa., that a little girl, Marie Elena Harriet was born to them on March 5. The mother was Miss Silvia Griffin before her marriage.

ROUND TOP NEWS

Gee, folks! You should see the grins on the faces of everyone in this community. The reason is very simple, and I admit that I can not blame anybody for grinning. The Rotan-Hamlin Highway is just about to start. The work is to be begun next week.

We are sorry to report that one of our community's draftees, Arville Pack, was not accepted by our "Uncle". He and Elmer Cooper were sent to Abilene Monday, Mar. 9 where Elmer was accepted and Arville was refused. It is reported that Elmer need not feel stuck up because of his new uncle. Odell Garrett leaves March 10 for Camp Wolters.

We are happy to report the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephenson and son Don, in this community. They are visiting in the home of Ira and Bill's mother, Mrs. Dave Scott. They were honored by Mrs. Scott with a big dinner Sunday. Many friends and relatives were present. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Dave Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Scott, Roy Cooper, James Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Arville Pack, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Garrett, and Vennis and Helen Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen were afternoon visitors. Everyone had a wonderful time.

George Leonard of Jaal, New

Lace Trims Dress and Even Serves as Buttons

Frothy white lingerie touches will make their appearance as separate collars and jabots and various frills. There is also a new movement to make snowy lace accents look as if they were actually a part of the dress. A newly arrived black crepe frock has bell sleeves with a section cut out, then filled in with lace insets that give the impression of lace undersleeves.

New, too, are the lace rosettes used like buttons. Many hats are lace-trimmed and there is promise of a tie-up between lingerie hats and lingerie neckwear.

Calico Skirts Printed

In Gay Colored Squares

Girls are going to have lots of fun wearing the new skirts made of quaint calico printed to look like big squares of different colors and designs. A yellow calico skirt can be worn with a bright red blouse. Or, try a green skirt with an inset of yellow to match the yellow in a tri-color blouse. For a dainty effect, wear a blouse of sheerest white lingerie with your calico skirt.

Drawstring

Very new and smart are straight coats, jackets, and even sweaters, that are brought snug into the waistline with a drawstring. It is a technique that is being applied to cloth and to suitings as well as to rayon wash materials.

Perky Sailor

Cunning are the new little sailors arriving for early spring wear. They are worn tilted provocatively over the eyes. In many instances the veil and the trimming is quite ornate.

... Wonder
what we're worth on the hoof?"

Just in case Joe doesn't know, it cost his country $211 to equip him. Multiply that by an army, and you have a tidy sum of money.

We ought to know. Over 2,400,000 Joes could be completely outfitted with the $510,000,000 which America's electric power companies paid in taxes last year.

That's considerably more than a million dollars a day!

We're glad our stake in Democracy is so large. The freedom America's fighting for is worth whatever it costs.

Even though our taxes have been going up, our rates have been going down. Today, the average household electric user gets about twice as much electricity for his money as he did 15 years ago.

This record is directly due to the careful planning of the business men who manage the nation's electric companies.

They were prepared when the war emergency came. Prepared to power shipyards, arsenals and plane plants.

And they'll stay right on the job of making America powerful until a couple of million Joes go back to civilian clothes again!

Suede Answers the Call for Pretty but Practical Fabrics

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THE necessities of wartime economy have challenged women to make very selective choices in the way of timely and appropriate dress. In preparing the new collections, those entrusted with the responsibility of creating clothes to meet these demands are motivated by a desire to maintain charm and attractiveness while always keeping in mind, however, the urgent call for practical wearability. Particularly in the matter of materials women must buy now with an eye to the future.

In this search for practicality plus chic and charm, it is with the utmost enthusiasm that designers of note are turning to richly colorful suede as highly desirable for dresses, suits, coats, hats, shoes and accessories. Arguments in favor of suede rest not only on its attractiveness, its subtle softness and its ready adaptability, but from the utterly utilitarian viewpoint there is nothing to surpass suede and the various leathers now so successfully used in costume design.

To demonstrate that a complete wardrobe of apparel done in serviceable, colorful, ever-flattering suede can be made to serve for almost every occasion in a busy woman's life, we are illustrating here with a trio of coat, dress and sportswear fashions. Note, also, that this group of suede apparel convincingly demonstrates that smart clothes today reflect a tailored simplicity that is nevertheless unfailingly feminine.

A graceful classic coat of suede is shown to the left in the above picture. It will prove an investment that will pay big dividends in style and will be good from one season to another. That's something to be considered in buying, now that so large a percentage of wool and other materials must be diverted into other channels to help win the war.

Centered in the group illustrated above is a beautifully fitted frock done in a lovely, dusty pink suede. Here again is reflected the charm of simple lines and detail. This dress has the new soft shoulder line and a trimming of brown suede for the belt and a touch of it at the neck. The hat and bag are made of the same rose shade. Brown suede shoes and gloves complete the outfit.

Leather for sportswear always carries a definite note of style and charm and at the same time has no peer when it comes to sturdy wearing qualities. The attractive sports costume shown to the right in the above picture is typical of the western ranch styles that are so popular this season. Here you see an ensemble done in three pieces, the skirt in gold-flecked tweed, the blouse in a plaid of the same gold with green and white, the leather waistcoat in green suede.

In the way of accessories, the tiny sailors made of pastel suedes are combined with matching suede gloves. Just now the violet shades are being heralded as first in fashion for spring. For a springlike look, choose a pastel plaid suit with violet tones in its coloring. Wear with this one of the new violet suede sailors adorned with a generous cluster of violets.

Wrap-Around Solves Fastener Problem

With the scarcity of metal because of priority rulings, the resourcefulness of designers has again been challenged to the point where necessity becomes the mother of invention. All of which, in the final analysis, reacts to the good fortune of fashion's followers. For it is certain that the current vogue for tie-it-yourself fastenings brings with it a new and fascinating styling.

There are the new skirts that drape to one side where they tie without aid of a slide fastener, hooks and eyes or button fastenings. A double duty dress is made in one piece for casual wear. For "dress-up" there is an extra apron effect that you can tie on in a jiffy. Many of the smartest coats are self-tied wrap-overs. Blouses are fashioned, also, with surplice fronts that tie to one side. Some jackets and many blouses tie in a series of little self fabric bows down the front.

Your Gloves Can't Be Too Colorful These Days

More color in gloves is the spring forecast. Which means we are going to wear gloves with our spring outfits in such audacious colors as Kelly green, bright red, purple, cerise, vivid blue and bright pink.

Gloves also will be made of the same print as that in your blouse, dress or hat. The fact that novel materials will be used for gloves also adds to their interest.

Straw Ensemble

Novelty tie, belt and three-strand necklace ensembles, all crocheted by hand of synthetic straw, are made to be worn with a related sweater. Pretty snoods are also crocheted in a lacy, open mesh stitch, with special attention to matching the colors to the peasant skirts with which they are ensembled.

Pine Cones

Of rayon fabric which packs easily, the all-purpose resort dress illustrated above uses Florida pine-cones and needles for its print motif. This winsome fashion comes in lily-white prints on lively blue, green and carotry tan grounds, or in the same attractive colors on a white ground. It has a smart peplum and fashionably collared low-cut V-neckline.

SECTION 1. That hereafter it shall be unlawful for chickens, geese, turkeys, guineas, ducks, or other fowls to run at large within the City Limits of the City of Hamlin, Texas.

Much complaint is coming from all sections of the town about damage chickens are doing to vegetable and flower gardens. You are violating a law when you let your chickens range over your neighborhood. They MUST be kept up.

gain than they look for the safety of America. Not only does this red tape apply to organized labor, but to government jobs as well which in most cases comes under the head of civil service. There are plenty of one hundred per cent Americans, deep in the heart of Texas, and we do mean skilled as well as unskilled, who would gladly take the place of sit down strikers if only they had the chance but some how, some way, they haven't found the right string to pull or else they are too patriotic to want to work side by side with John L. Lewis' gang.

As Walter Winchell said Sunday night: "We wonder if it isn't becoming dangerous to be on the side of 'Law and Order.' " And may we add, "The guy who relaxes, is aiding the Axis."

Better Be Good To The Electrical Appliances

Factories that once hummed busy as a bee turning out electric appliances today are roaring like a lion following conversion to the manufacture of war materials. Hence, the West Texas Utilities foresees a time when rationing will be applied to all appliances, in addition to refrigerators — a day when floor sweepers, irons and similar items will become as hard to get as a new tire or a hundred lbs. of sugar.

So the company is advertising that you "Be good to your electric appliances and they'll be good to you."
Refrigerators, it was pointed out, are vital to the conservation and protection of food and, therefore, steps should be taken to keep them in good repair and to prevent unnecessary deterioration. Most all appliances, it was said, are important in maintaining civilian morale, performing many household tasks and allowing more time for war efforts.
Special care was urged for all appliance parts and cords for lamps in which rubber or copper is used.

"It is the obligation of the government to act without fear or favor. On the labor issue government has acted with both fear and favor. Within the space of a single week we saw the government caught on both horns of its dilemma, first fearing to exercise its powers under the laws and then being all but impotent in the coal strike because it had abdicated power by law."— H. M. Wriston, President, Brown University.

Home-Making Girls Served Rotary Lunch

One of the most enjoyable lunches yet given the Hamlin Rotary Club was served by the Home-Making Class in the dining room of the Home-Making department of the High school, Wednesday, under the direction of Miss Barron, their instructor. This was the first public demonstration of Miss Barron's work since she began her services in Hamlin only a few weeks ago. The Club and all the visiting Rotarians were liberal in compliments of the luncheon and the program that followed in the auditorium.

Guests of the Club were three men from Abilene, Dr. Don Morris, president of Abilene Christian College, John Deffebach, D. W. Berry and John Pinson, of Sweetwater. Also the Hamlin School Board, Tom Teague, J. Ubben, W. H. McBride, Joe W. McCrary, Holly Toler, Roy Gilbreath and C. C. Prater, and Supt. Gordon Bennett and Principal Hubert Morton, were guests.

A short, but very enlightening program was rendered in the auditorium.

The soldiers are crowding the churches near the army camps. Can we be less interested in the church at home? If we fail the church in these trying times, then the future, indeed, is dark and our children's plight is a very sad one. We need the influence of the church more than ever before. Help make this influence a vital force in this community by faithful attendance at the house of the Lord.

Mrs. P. D. Harkins spent last week in Wichita Falls, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McDonald. She says the highway traffic has not slowed down much yet, as all she could do to hold her "Plymouth Steed" down to 40 or 50 miles, especially while going to see "mama and papa." This couple came to Hamlin last October. Mr. Harkins is employed by the Shell Pipe Line Co.

Memorial Service For A "MacArthur Boy"

Hamlin has had its first "Memorial Service" for a fallen "hero" and as fate would have it, it was for a "MacArthur Boy."

The Herald is sure this was the first memorial service for a Hamlin boy in our armed services . . . several died in camps during the first World War, but as far as we have any record, the service here Sunday was the first of its kind for one who had died in battle.

Services were held at the First Baptist church, at 3:00 P. M. with the pastor, Rev. East assisting the Rev. N. A. McMillan, pastor of the Church of the Assembly of God, the church which the family attends.

It was a simple service, but deeply impressive, for

HAROLD A. GARRISON

Who was born November 18, 1917 and who died in action January 31, 1942, in defense of his country, with the MacArthur army in the Philippines. He was 24 years, 2 months and 12 days of age.

Harold A. Garrison joined the Regular Army in May, 1939; sailed for Manila July 1, 1939. At the time of his death he was a member of Headquarters Company, 31st Infantry.

The last letter his mother received from him was Dec. 3, 1941, saying he would leave on the first ship out for home and that he was feeling fine.

This deceased soldier is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. W. Essary, a steap-father, J. W. Essary, one brother, Sgt. William G. Garrison of the Air Corps in Hawaii; also there are four half-sisters, three half-brothers, five step sisters and four step-brothers, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Messick.

The last letter from this soldier boy would indicate that he longed to return from the far-away islands to his mother and family and friends at Hamlin. He had volunteered to make the Army his profession, and his death came just when all the nation was so proud of the heroic stand the "MacArthur Boys" were making against such overwhelming odds.

The services Sunday cast a shadow of sadness over everyone present, and there should have been more present. It would have been a heart of steel not to feel a touch of sympathy for the relatives.

Yes, it was a funeral, but there was no casket. The floral offerings were few, simple, but great in effect. A beautiful flower-designed national flag about 20 by 24 inches was the center view, with other floral offerings on either side. There were no formalities, no special eulogies—severe simplicity throughout was evident. The minister, Rev. McMillan, was introduced by Rev. East to make the talk. He picked up something from the top of the stand, looked at it calmly, sadly. He said, "May we place this out somewhere so it can be seen?" It was a tinted picture of Harold A. Garrison, size about 7x10 inches. It became the center of emotions, and viewed from any point in the auditorium, the fine features of a brave soldier stood out for every one to see. Dressed in a tropical army uniform of pure white, a clean handsome face, proud brave look, all together stimulated every fibre of sympathy and patriotism in every heart. Instead of the fair-sized audience, there should have been present thousands to pay honor and to view the likeness of a young man who in time of peril to his nation had paid the supreme sacrifice. Perhaps the services were held too quickly and not enough information was given before the hour set, or more would have been present.

Not many Hamlin people knew this young man intimately, but those who did, speak of him in the highest terms. As one might properly surmise, he had never enjoyed many advantages while growing up. But in this land, one need not be educated or rich to merit the highest esteem of his countrymen. The very intelligent look and general appearance of Harold A. Garrison showed that he was a typical American, possessing all that goes to make up our young aggressive manhood of America. Truly Harold A. Garrison was a hero, serving with a hero and dying as a hero. Long live the memory of every "MacArthur Boy."

Jack Miller of Camp Bowie was here this week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Miller.

Community War Work Is Going On Quietly

A peep in on the Red Cross room Tuesday afternoon revealed the fact that many Hamlin women are diligently working to provide comfort to somebody who is to suffer because of war.

The woman who leaves her home, her own work, plies her fingers with needles and thread, or stacks papers, knits garments and keeps eternally at something, we say she is a strength in time of trouble. Yes, Ye Editor looked in on the Red Cross room.

You know it is remarkable how many papers are carried to the Red Cross room. Most of them carefully and properly tied in classified bundles. But one may see some "trashy stuff" that has been dumped. That simply means that some good woman must assort the papers from the stuff that somebody dumped along with filth that should have never been delivered there. That is not help. It means work for somebody. Remember papers should be classified and stacked and tied, all as clean as possible.

It would be interesting for the Herald to list the names of all of the women who give of their time and labor in this war work. And we will venture to name some of the several we saw Tuesday: There was Mrs. M. Y. Wilson, Mrs. Paul Bryan, Mrs. W. H. Dean, Mrs. J. S. Dickey, Mrs. Grigg, Mrs. Bernard Meeks, Mrs. O. G. Harvey, Mrs. R. A. Crockett, Mrs. Howard King and others.

Somebody who has not seen them working, might ask, "What are they doing?" Well, sir, they are piecing quilts, sewing quilts and quilting quilts, for one thing. Some knit garments, some packing and on and on they work. It all sums up that some unfortunate person, somewhere in the world will be helped by the loving hands of Hamlin community women.

Jack Miller of Camp Bowie was here this week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Miller.

The Rev. McMillan, in the trying hour, did deliver a very impressive and appropriate message, not so much for the dead, but for the living of all rank and stations of life.

Dr. W. R. White Speaks Tonight, Baptist Church

The Baptist Brotherhood of District 17, composed of seven Baptist Associations, is sponsoring a series of programs during this week. These programs appeal especially to laymen, but women are invited to attend.

8:35—Special music, Hardin-Simmons Quartet.

8:45—Address, Dr. Lawson Cooke, Southwide Brotherhood Sec'y., of Memphis, Tenn.

We want at least 100 Hamlin laymen, together with the women, to attend this meeting.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Several years ago statistics showed that the American dollar was spent thus: 24 1-2c for living expenses; 22c for luxuries; 14c for waste; 11c for investments; 8 1-4c for crime; 4 1-2c for government; 1 1-2c for education; 3-4c for religion; the rest for miscellaneous.

These figures have changed. Today we are spending a large portion of our national income to keep a bunch of international gangsters from destroying our civilization. We wonder what the present might be if: we had spent less for gasoline and more for the gospel; less for the movies and more for the salvation of the world; less for gymnastics and more for godliness; less for fun and fudge and filth and more for those things which do not perish. We can only speculate as to the answer.

What if we as a people should come back to God and honor Him with our substance, our time, and our talents? The Bible gives the answer. "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." Prov. 14:34. "If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and heal their land." II Chron. 7:14.

We welcome you to our services Sunday. We are beginning the evening service thirty minutes later, new time: Training Unions, 7:30; Evening Worship, 8:30; Morning services as usual: Sunday School at 9:45; Morning Worship, 11:00.

H. E. East, Pastor

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greenway went to Childress Monday to attend the funeral of T. M. McClaran, an uncle of Mrs. Greenway.

Women Notice

The Silver Art Tea, hosted by the Woman's Literary Club, will be held Friday afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock in the basement of the Methodist church instead of in the home of Mrs. Tate May, as previously planned. The change is made because of the serious illness of Mrs. May's near by neighbor, Mrs. J. B. Adkins.

Please remember the change in place and come to the Methodist church.

Won't you feel smart to find your coat or suit pictured on the pages of Mademoiselle? It will be a pleasure to shop in friendly surroundings of Bryant-Link Co., and then to pick the leading fashion magazine and to see yourself as others see you.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

This

Geography—

For about three years now, we have been studying geography, down to the minutest detail. This week we have started on the last lap around the world. We have just finished the islands of the Pacific Ocean, and now we are rounding the straights into the Indian Ocean to learn as much as possible about the lay of the coast lines, the bases, the people and their interior lands. Java (like Holland, like Belgium, Denmark, Poland, Norway, Greece, Romania, and France, lies conquered, and silent. Like a fallen beast, just silent, perishing under the heel of the Japs. So to keep ahead, we've got to study some more geography.

This week is another week of uncertainty. Just which way and how many armies will the Japs throw out to conquer some more corners of the world? Will Japan strike, some cold night, at the back of Russia; will Japan head into the untrained, helpless Indian millions; will Japan pour her armies into Australia and New Zealand to rob the white English-speaking peoples of the most beautiful new lands of the earth; will Japan and Germany crush Russia between two mighty armies of steel, and then possess enough resources to invade this loved America? These are just a few questions uppermost in our minds this week.

Did you know the United States has only a miserably small army, to cover all the danger points and do the job that Americans must have done to continue our independent way of life? The next phase of this struggle must be "forward" and no stopping or turning aside. The world is too small now to accommodate the Americans and the bastardly Japs. There is not much more geography to study, and from here on the geography will be a review of the lands now silent. Watch the American forces push the Huns back and duck the Japs a jolt that will last them a spell.

"Carping Critics"—

The heading above is from an address of Congressman Celler of New York, as published in the Congressional Record, Feb. 28.

It was in reply to so much criticism of congress, lately. In the address he says: "I am for utmost criticism provided it be constructive and patriotic." . . . In this address the gentleman from New York sets forth some pretty good reading, as to who criticize the most and severest, and why, and then he sets out the gigantic task and accomplishments congress has thus far accomplished. There are at least two kinds of people in the United States, first those who have been wide-awake all along and wanted to do something, and, second, the isolationists who saw nothing but error, misdeeds and blunders of the administration before December 7.

The greatest criticism in Texas comes against congress for not dealing strongly with the labor situation. It all depends upon the interest a section of a country has. Down here in Texas we think there is a great fire raging in the world and we ALL should fight to the limit of our strength, not counting hours, or dollars in our efforts to stop the war in the world. We can't see how or why any authority should allow even one man to loaf on a construction job, much less thousands.

Let us all boost the good deeds accomplished and offer constructive suggestions, based upon patriotism and it will make everybody feel better. Good old horse sense goes farther than anything else in this nation. We can't afford to "blow up the works" just because one or two mistakes (according to our knowledge) have been made or because a defeat has come in some corner of the world.

War Means Movement

"War, from the beginning of time, has meant movement—transportation," said Robert S. Henry of the Association of American Railroads, in a recent address. "For ten thousand years, this movement was accomplished by the muscles of men and animals. It was a severely limited movement. William Tecumseh Sherman defined the limit when he said that no army depending upon supplies hauled by wagon could operate more than one hundred miles from its base, because the teams and men, going and coming, would 'consume the contents of the wagons.'"

"And then a little more than three-quarters of a century ago there came into war a new sort of transportation—mechanized transportation by rail. It found its first real use in the American War between the States.

"This was the first mechanized war, the first railroad war. Its pattern was shaped largely by the pattern of the railroads. From that day to this, the instruments of mechanized mobility have vastly multiplied. This present war, above all conflicts of the past, is a war of swift movement and sudden surprise. But in the present preoccupation with these new adjuncts of mobile war, we cannot forget that back of them, making them possible and at the same time making possible the whole war effort of the nation, and its daily life as well, is the greatest mechanized transportation of all—the immense mass carrying machine of the American railroads."

Producing industry is the backbone of the war effort. And rail transportation is the backbone of producing industry.

Next time you see a train, think of it in this light. It is a great weapon of war. And without it, the waging of successful war would be impossible.—Industrial News.

Farmers Told to Plant Full Cotton Quotas

Long Staple Lint and Oil From Seed Needed In War Effort

Washington—The nation's two million five hundred thousand cotton farmers were told by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard that they should plant this year their full national acreage allotment of 27,400,000 acres. He recommended that as much of this acreage allotment as possible be planted in medium or longer staple varieties of cotton in order to assure adequate supplies of the qualities needed to meet military requirements.

The Secretary explained that his call on the cotton farmers to plant their full allotment does not mean that the cotton acreage for 1942 will be increased, or that farmers are expected to exceed their assigned quotas. Farmers last year underplanted the national acreage allotment by 4,000,000 acres and the Secretary is anxious that there be no such underplanting this season. The 1941 crop of 10,976,000 bales was produced from a planted acreage of 23,250,000 acres.

A substantial increase in the production of cottonseed oil would result from the planting of the full cotton acreage allotment, Wickard pointed out, adding that vegetable oils are badly needed. Assuming that the entire increase in production of cotton seed is crushed for oil, a 1942 crop of 13,500 bales would result in an increase of 250,000,000 pounds of cottonseed oil over the 1941 production.

"It is especially important," Wickard said, "that farmers plant their full cotton acreage allotments in those areas which normally produce cotton of a staple length of one inch or better, and where the planting of a full allotment will not reduce the acreage planted to other oil crops. The war emergency has developed an increased need for cotton of longer staple lengths. In addition to helping meet the need for longer staple cotton, increased cotton production also will add considerably to our supply of vegetable oils."

A Letter

Council Bluffs, Iowa
March 3, 1942Hamlin Herald
Hamlin, Texas
Dear Mr. Pope:

Letters from home are greatly enjoyed, but still I look forward to an even greater joy on Monday's knowing it is "Hamlin Herald Day," up North. However, they speak of this area being the gate way to the "Great West," I still feel that it is the North.

In order to continue to share the news of the people whom I enjoyed during the years I spent in Hamlin, I am enclosing the price of another year's subscription.

I am grateful to you and your staff for the past service, and for always remembering me on your mailing list.

The weather here has been changeable this winter. Now the city has a pretty blanket of snow; makes a beautiful picture, for one who is not used to snow.

Wishing the Herald every success there is during our "Victory Time." Remember me to my many friends in Hamlin, and in the communities around Hamlin.

Gratefully,
Myrtle Lee Cohorn

P. S. I am still at the Mercy Hospital, as surgical supervisor. Like my work. The Sisters are lovely to work with and to be one's superior.

FAIRY TALE

No harm can come to France. The Maginot Line is impregnable. The French Army is the finest on earth. Besides, Hitler doesn't have enough gasoline to fight a war. Italy is going to collapse. The German people will revolt. General Mud will save Poland. General Rommel is washed up. France help the Nazis? Ridiculous! Japan's greatest fear is war with America. The Japs have only a few miserable planes. Besides, they are cross-eyed and can't fly them. Pearl Harbor is impregnable. Singapore is impregnable. Enemy planes will never reach the Pacific Coast; nor will Jap submarines. The Japanese people are weary of the war. Japan is certain to collapse internally.

Americans don't want to fight—Americans can't fight.

TRUE STORY

War is hell—more so than ever and terrifically more costly. Wars are won—or lost—by whole peoples, not just by soldiers. A soldier is worthless if he cannot feel every moment of his dangerous life that the folks at home are doing their utmost to back him up. Blood and tears and sweat and toil don't mean a thing if they do not come from everybody. Being confident of ultimate victory is all right enough if you're helping to win that victory. This war will not be a breeze. It will be long and tough and tiresome. Our enemies are not dolts and cowards. They are cunning—and courageous in a nasty sort of way. They can be licked. They will be licked. Americans can fight. Americans will fight—every one of us—everywhere, in every way.

Flat Top Organizes New Defense Unit

On Thursday night, Feb. 19 the Defense Committee of Hamlin came to Flat Top community to put on a Defense program that they were sponsoring. They also helped to organize a local unit here at Flat Top.

Several phases of the Defense work were discussed, including Food for Defense by Mr. Campbell; Scrap Iron for Defense by Mr. Witt; Repair of Farm Machinery by Mr. Carmichael, and Defense Stamps and Bonds by the Hamlin Postmaster, Harold Bonner, and Tate May, a banker.

At the conclusion of the program given by the Hamlin group, the Flat Top Defense unit was organized with the following officers: Roy Bruner, president; Clinton Packwood, vice-president; Eugene McInroe, secretary, and Mrs. Eugene McInroe, reporter.

On Thursday night, March 5th, the president had a called meeting for the purpose of completing the local organization. The following persons were elected by the president as workers on the various committees:

Food for Defense, Mrs. Eli Bruner, chairman; Mrs. Elsie Packwood and Mrs. Larry Holmes.

Scrap Iron, D. W. Richardson, chairman; Clinton Packwood and E. C. Davis.

Repair of Farm Machinery, Larry Holmes, chairman; James McGough and Webster Graham.

Defense Bonds and Stamps, Mrs. J. T. Hamrick, chairman; Mrs. D. W. Richardson and Mrs. J. M. McGough.

After the business session of the meeting, Mrs. A. L. Allison from Anson gave a very interesting and educational talk on the subject of Nutrition. This talk was followed by a discussion of the stock available for purchase in the Cheese Plant at Anson. This discussion was lead by Mrs. Williams of Tuxedo.

At the conclusion of all work pertaining to defense, the local Boy Scout troop promoted a Court of Honor for the Scouts that were ready for advancement. The following awards were conferred upon the Scouts by the Scoutmaster, Eugene McInroe and the assistant Scoutmaster, Clinton Packwood: First class rank, Scouts E. L. Lee, Glenn Richardson and L. V. Hill; Merits, E. L. Lee and Glenn Richardson; and Star Scout rank was conferred upon Glenn Richardson. The Scout program was concluded by the Scoutmaster's benediction.

Much scrap iron is being hauled into town. The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts have gathered four or five tons and they are still working to gather scraps to whip the Japs. If you have old papers or scrap iron, let the Scouts at Flat Top know and they will be glad to take them off your hands. The Girl Scouts are also piecing quilts for the Red Cross and they are meeting at Flat Top church Saturday night, March 14th to quilt two quilts. They invite any one who can quilt to come Saturday night and help them.

The teachers and pupils in Flat Top are making a special effort to have their school one hundred per cent for defense. Most every morning some child meets the postman and buys defense stamps. Since the defense program started in our community, the teachers and pupils have spent several dollars for Defense.

Immediately after the Pearl Harbor incident, the school board at this place bought a two thousand dollar bond for which everyone is very proud. We are happy that we can do a little to help our men and boys who are fighting for American democracy and world freedom.

'Menu' Buttons

Buttons are more decorative than ever in the spring fashion picture. Treated, for the most part, as trimming or accessory accents, they are made to achieve striking effects. Use them on a jacket or a dress and watch the reaction of admiring friends. Among the stunning buttons designed this season, two of the most thrilling types are the ceramic roses used to trim the afternoon dress, shown at the top in the above picture, and "menu" buttons like the huge "turkey on a plate" buttons that dramatize the tailored jacket illustrated below. Remember, many a last year's dress or suit can be made to look new with this year's buttons. A thrifty way of achieving the height of fashion!

Cecil Eivens, former Hamlin resident who has been assistant manager of the Wichita Falls Production Credit Association since January, 1941, has moved to Lubbock and assumed a position on March 1 as assistant secretary-treasurer of the Lubbock Production Credit Association. Mr. Eivens was employed in the Farmers and Merchants National Bank before moving to Lubbock in 1940. His mother, Mrs. A. M. Eivans, still resides near McCaulley.

Mrs. Effie McCoy writes from Los Angeles that she had just received word from her sailor son Dawson who had come into Honolulu safe and happy and wanted her to pass the word on to his friends in Hamlin and his brothers here, J. E., Etzel and Larry. Any mother getting direct word now from a son of the armed service has a right to be supremely happy.

Pvt. Buford C. Howard of Ft. Leonard, Mo., is at home on a short furlough and to be with his daughter, Nancy Pearl, born on March 8th. The mother was Edna Pearl Bull before her marriage. The soldier's parents live at Sylvester.

The Herald has a birth announcement from Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Stoner of 955 Woodside, Pa., that a little girl, Marie Elena Harriet was born to them on March 5. The mother was Miss Silvia Griffin before her marriage.

ROUND TOP NEWS

Gee, folks! You should see the grins on the faces of everyone in this community. The reason is very simple, and I admit that I can not blame anybody for grinning. The Rotan-Hamlin Highway is just about to start. The work is to be begun next week.

We are sorry to report that one of our community's draftees, Arville Pack, was not accepted by our "Uncle". He and Elmer Cooper were sent to Abilene Monday, Mar. 9 where Elmer was accepted and Arville was refused. It is reported that Elmer need not feel stuck up because of his new uncle. Odell Garrett leaves March 10 for Camp Wolters.

We are happy to report the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephenson and son Don, in this community. They are visiting in the home of Ira and Bill's mother, Mrs. Dave Scott. They were honored by Mrs. Scott with a big dinner Sunday. Many friends and relatives were present. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Dave Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Scott, Roy Cooper, James Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Arville Pack, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Garrett, and Vennis and Helen Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen were afternoon visitors. Everyone had a wonderful time.

George Leonard of Jaal, New

Mexico has been visiting relatives in this community the past week.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Newell King. She is in the Callan Hospital at Rotan and is to be operated on this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gartman, friends of this community, are the proud parents of a new girl born at the Callan Hospital March 9. Congratulations!

There are services at the Nazarene Church in this community twice every Sunday. You are invited to attend these good services and enjoy them with us.

Lace Trims Dress and

Even Serves as Buttons

Frothy white lingerie touches will make their appearance as separate collars and jabots and various frills. There is also a new movement to make snowy lace accents look as if they were actually a part of the dress. A newly arrived black crepe frock has bell sleeves with a section cut out, then filled in with lace insets that give the impression of lace undersleeves.

New, too, are the lace rosettes used like buttons. Many hats are lace-trimmed and there is promise of a tie-up between lingerie hats and lingerie neckwear.

Calico Skirts Printed

In Gay Colored Squares

Girls are going to have lots of fun wearing the new skirts made of quaint calico printed to look like big squares of different colors and designs. A yellow calico skirt can be worn with a bright red blouse. Or, try a green skirt with an inset of yellow to match the yellow in a tricolor blouse. For a dainty effect, wear a blouse of sheerest white lingerie with your calico skirt.

Drawstring

Very new and smart are straight coats, jackets, and even sweaters, that are brought snug into the waistline with a drawstring. It is a technique that is being applied to cloth and to suitings as well as to rayon wash materials.

Perky Sailor

Cunning are the new little sailors arriving for early spring wear. They are worn tilted provocatively over the eyes. In many instances the veil and the trimming is quite ornate.

"Hey, Joe!"

... Wonder
what we're worth on the hoof?"

Just in case Joe doesn't know, it cost his country $211 to equip him. Multiply that by an army, and you have a tidy sum of money.

We ought to know. Over 2,400,000 Joes could be completely outfitted with the $510,000,000 which America's electric power companies paid in taxes last year.

That's considerably more than a million dollars a day!

We're glad our stake in Democracy is so large. The freedom America's fighting for is worth whatever it costs.

Even though our taxes have been going up, our rates have been going down. Today, the average household electric user gets about twice as much electricity for his money as he did 15 years ago.

This record is directly due to the careful planning of the business men who manage the nation's electric companies.

They were prepared when the war emergency came. Prepared to power shipyards, arsenals and plane plants.

And they'll stay right on the job of making America powerful until a couple of million Joes go back to civilian clothes again!

Suede Answers the Call for Pretty but Practical Fabrics

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THE necessities of wartime economy have challenged women to make very selective choices in the way of timely and appropriate dress. In preparing the new collections, those entrusted with the responsibility of creating clothes to meet these demands are motivated by a desire to maintain charm and attractiveness while always keeping in mind, however, the urgent call for practical wearability. Particularly in the matter of materials women must buy now with an eye to the future.

In this search for practicality plus chic and charm, it is with the utmost enthusiasm that designers of note are turning to richly colorful suede as highly desirable for dresses, suits, coats, hats, shoes and accessories. Arguments in favor of suede rest not only on its attractiveness, its subtle softness and its ready adaptability, but from the utterly utilitarian viewpoint there is nothing to surpass suede and the various leathers now so successfully used in costume design.

To demonstrate that a complete wardrobe of apparel done in serviceable, colorful, ever-flattering suede can be made to serve for almost every occasion in a busy woman's life, we are illustrating here with a trio of coat, dress and sportswear fashions. Note, also, that this group of suede apparel convincingly demonstrates that smart clothes today reflect a tailored simplicity that is nevertheless unfailingly feminine.

A graceful classic coat of suede is shown to the left in the above picture. It will prove an investment that will pay big dividends in style and will be good from one season to another. That's something to be considered in buying, now that so large a percentage of wool and other materials must be diverted into other channels to help win the war.

Centered in the group illustrated above is a beautifully fitted frock done in a lovely, dusty pink suede. Here again is reflected the charm of simple lines and detail. This dress has the new soft shoulder line and a trimming of brown suede for the belt and a touch of it at the neck. The hat and bag are made of the same rose shade. Brown suede shoes and gloves complete the outfit.

Leather for sportswear always carries a definite note of style and charm and at the same time has no peer when it comes to sturdy wearing qualities. The attractive sports costume shown to the right in the above picture is typical of the western ranch styles that are so popular this season. Here you see an ensemble done in three pieces, the skirt in gold-flecked tweed, the blouse in a plaid of the same gold with green and white, the leather waistcoat in green suede.

In the way of accessories, the tiny sailors made of pastel suedes are combined with matching suede gloves. Just now the violet shades are being heralded as first in fashion for spring. For a springlike look, choose a pastel plaid suit with violet tones in its coloring. Wear with this one of the new violet suede sailors adorned with a generous cluster of violets.

Pine Cones

Of rayon fabric which packs easily, the all-purpose resort dress illustrated above uses Florida pine-cones and needles for its print motif. This winsome fashion comes in lily-white prints on lively blue, green and carotly tan grounds, or in the same attractive colors on a white ground. It has a smart peplum and fashionably collared low-cut V-neckline.

Wrap-Around Solves Fastener Problem

With the scarcity of metal because of priority rulings, the resourcefulness of designers has again been challenged to the point where necessity becomes the mother of invention. All of which, in the final analysis, reacts to the good fortune of fashion's followers. For it is certain that the current vogue for tie-it-yourself fastenings brings with it a new and fascinating styling.

There are the new skirts that drape to one side where they tie without aid of a slide fastener, hooks and eyes or button fastenings. A double duty dress is made in one piece for casual wear. For "dress-up" there is an extra apron effect that you can tie on in a jiffy. Many of the smartest coats are self-tied wrap-overs. Blouses are fashioned, also, with surplice fronts that tie to one side. Some jackets and many blouses tie in a series of little self fabric bows down the front.

Your Gloves Can't Be Too Colorful These Days

More color in gloves is the spring forecast. Which means we are going to wear gloves with our spring outfits in such audacious colors as Kelly green, bright red, purple, cerise, vivid blue and bright pink.

Gloves also will be made of the same print as that in your blouse, dress or hat. The fact that novel materials will be used for gloves also adds to their interest.

Straw Ensemble

Novelty tie, belt and three-strand necklace ensembles, all crocheted by hand of synthetic straw, are made to be worn with a related sweater. Pretty snoods are also crocheted in a lacy, open mesh stitch, with special attention to matching the colors to the peasant skirts with which they are ensembled.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

A gift tea honoring Mrs. Ira Parker was given in the home of Mrs. Willard Maberry Thursday afternoon, March 5. The hostesses were Mrs. Willard Maberry, Mrs. Willie Maberry, Mrs. L. B. Maberry and Mrs. Ray Maberry.

L. H. Boyd handed us a dollar for a year's subscription to the Herald and told us that our "O'Grams" were worth the price and we say, thanks.

Melvin Hunter tells us that last week's O'Gram and the editorial by Bowen Pope was just the right kind and in his belief ninety-five per cent of the people would agree.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson visited over the week end with Mrs. Henderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson in Miles, Texas.

The rig is up and the drilling is about to begin on the well off-setting the J. L. Maberry No. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Rossen have moved to San Antonio where they will make their home. Mr. Rossen plans to enter an aviation school there.

E. C. Waldrop made a trip to Abilene last Saturday and returning home with him was his son, Billie, who is in school there.

Casey Jones, who for the past three years has been employed on the county road crew, has taken a job with Long and Stephens, oil well drilling contractors.

Kenneth Parker of Dallas was a visitor in McCauley and Hamlin last week end. Kenneth is an instructor at the aviation school at Grand Prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Maberry who sold there home a few days ago, have moved to Grand Prairie, Texas, where they will make their home for the present.

For a few minutes Saturday, McCauley had a nice snow and on Sunday a nice sand storm with the sun shining.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele and children of Plasterco visited Mrs. Etta Stephenson last Sunday.

"Channels of Blessings" was the theme for the home mission week of prayer program at the Baptist church in an all-day meeting last Wednesday. The McCauley ladies of the church were hostesses to the Sylvester ladies. A covered dish luncheon was served at the noon hour.

Mrs. McCain of Sylvester, mother of Mrs. Lawrence Griffin of McCauley, passed away last Thursday night. Burial was in the Sylvester cemetery and funeral services were conducted at the Sylvester Methodist church.

Emma Sue and Ollie Ray Hennington were week end visitors in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Hennington.

Mrs. John Wishert is ill in a Rotan hospital and reports are that she is on the verge of pneumonia.

District court has been in session at Roby for the past two weeks and we understand that the grand jury has recessed for this term.

The district Sunday school and training union convention was held in Rotan last week. A number of McCauley people attended.

A dinner, honoring J. H. Milsap on his eighty-third birthday was given by his children, Tuesday, March 3rd.

Little Sherry Maude Eivens is confined to her bed with measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Akins and son visited last week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Akins.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Mustain are the proud parents of a baby boy.

Rayford Mustain of Dallas has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Mustain of McCauley.

Mrs. Robert McCaulley Jr. is visiting for a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Maberry. Her husband, Master Sergeant Robert Lewis, has been transferred from Camp Barkeley to a military school in Virginia.

Cicero (Pa) Martin, had a birthday the other day and he was ninety-eight years young. And we do mean young, as we saw him at a barbecue the other night. Mr. Martin is the father of Mrs. W. M. Keller and the grandfather of Mrs. L. E. Rector.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris and children visited last week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Faulkenberry. The Harris are making their home in Buffalo Gap, where Lester is caretaker for the State Park.

Mrs. W. M. Keller and her father, Pa Martin, are spending this week in Rotan visiting Mrs. Jim Davis.

The Red Cross sewing room will hereafter be open every Tuesday and Thursday and the ladies are urged to help out.

O-O-O-O

It is natural that U. S. citizens are more or less depressed over military reverses in the Pacific. It is noted that the battle of production has never been properly maintained, due to labor troubles. Lest we forget, remember France fell due to trouble from within. Shall our boys be deprived of the necessary weapons to defend our country in order to appease labor leaders who are mad for power? Cut the red tape and there will be no labor shortage.

Turn on your radio most every hour and you will hear the call for workers for every kind of defense job, but after you investigate you will find that there is so much red tape attached to such jobs, such as buying yourself into some Union headed by men in most cases of foreign birth or men who are in sympathy with the so-called new order in Europe, and in fact men who are looking more for personal gain than they look for the safety of America. Not only does this red tape apply to organized labor, but to government jobs as well which in most cases comes under the head of civil service. There are plenty of one hundred per cent Americans, deep in the heart of Texas, and we do mean skilled as well as unskilled, who would gladly take the place of sit down strikers if only they had the chance but some how, some way, they haven't found the right string to pull or else they are too patriotic to want to work side by side with John L. Lewis' gang.

As Walter Winchell said Sunday night: "We wonder if it isn't becoming dangerous to be on the side of 'Law and Order.' And may we add, 'The guy who relaxes, is aiding the Axis.'"
